Strawberries with Everything

Steve Brook

RAWPRAWN PUBLISHING
ISBN 0646450042
224 PP, PB,
$24.95

In often hilarious detail, Steve Brook describes the emigration of his family to Australia and his eventual Aussification. After a holiday in Poland, he is offered a job at the Polish Radio in Warsaw, and spends eight years on the wrong side during the Cold War, with a ring-side seat at some of the most significant events in European history, including the Warsaw Dog Show, the 'anti-Zionist' uproar of 1968, and the Soviet-led invasion of Czechoslovakia the same year. He returns to Australia in 1974, and now finds himself wondering if it was all worthwhile. Of course it was.

The Land as Viewed from the Sea

Richard Collins

SEREN
ISBN 1854113674
192 PP, PB,
$26.50

A beautifully-wrought debut novel, short-listed for the Whitbread Award this year. Two friends work together on the land: one allows the other to read the novel he is writing: The Land as Viewed from the Sea. Slowly, the fiction within the fiction intrudes into their reality, altering their relationship, and threatening to change their lives forever.

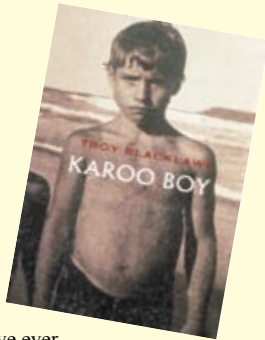

Karoo Boy

Troy Blacklaws

DUCKWORTH
ISBN 071563397X
256 PP, PB,
$32.95

Dreams and reality meet in a lyrical novel of small town South Africa that has universal resonance. 'Karoo Boy is the most colourful book I've ever read. It is the perfect introduction to both the magic and the mystery of South Africa.' – Chris Martin, lead singer of Coldplay

The Dragons of Expectation Reality and Elusion in the Course of History

Robert Conquest

DUCKWORTH
ISBN 0715634267
256 PP, HB,
$59.50

Whether discussing the political thinking of ancient Greece, the corrosive effect of ideological socialism, or the inanities of the European Union, Robert Conquest assesses the ravages of our past, the absurdities of our present, and the pitfalls that lie in our future. Robert Conquest is the most revered intellectual conservative still writing today.

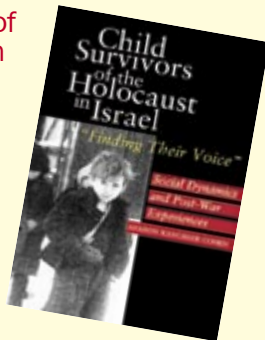

Child Survivors of the Holocaust in Israel Social Dynamics and Post-War Experiences

Sharon Kangisser Cohen

SUSSEX ACADEMIC PRESS
ISBN 1845190882
256 PP, PB,
$56.00

The life stories of child survivors who built their post-war lives in Israel have been largely left untold. This study examines the dynamics of "silence" and "retelling" in the post-war experiences of Holocaust survivors – whether they were likely to speak publicly about their war-time experiences, or remain silent. The interviews with survivors are presented "using their own voice" and can therefore be understood in their own unique context.

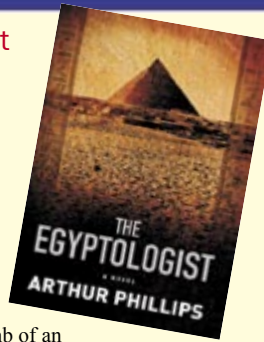

The Egyptologist

Arthur Phillips

DUCKWORTH
ISBN 0715633996
392 PP, PB,
$36.50

Witty, inventive and brilliantly constructed, The Egyptologist is a tale of obsession and one man's hunt for the tomb of an apocryphal king. Transporting the reader on a dazzling journey – from the desert plains of 1920s Egypt to the slums of Australia and the ballrooms of Boston, by way of Oxford, the battlefields of the First World War, and a royal court in turmoil – The Egyptologist is a tour de force: explosive, unpredictable and utterly compelling.

Hong Kong Connections Transnational Imagination in Action Cinema

Meaghan Morris and others (Eds)

HONG KONG UNI PRESS
ISBN 971563381X
358 PP, PB,
$59.95

Since the 1960s, Hong Kong cinema has helped to shape one of the world's most popular cultural genres: action cinema. Hong Kong Connections brings leading film scholars together to explore the uptake of Hong Kong cinema in Japan, Korea, India, Australia, France and the US as well as its links with Taiwan, Singapore and the Chinese mainland.

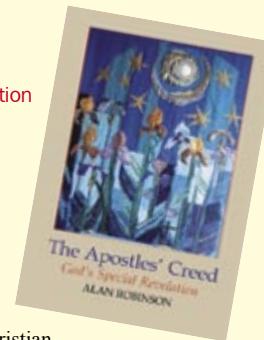

The Apostles' Creed

God's Special Revelation

Alan Robinson

ALPHA PRESS
ISBN 1898595461
128 PP, PB,
$32.95

Comprehensive, but using simple language, this book will be of interest to all Christian denominations. The Apostles' Creed is discussed and explained by devoting a chapter to each article or phrase of the creed. The first chapter, on belief in God, sets the book in a multicultural context. All chapters contain topics for discussion and activities which may be used by church groups.

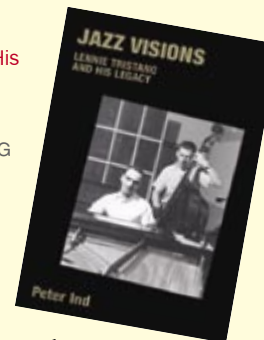

Jazz Visions

Lennie Tristano and His Legacy

Peter Ind

EQUINOX PUBLISHING
ISBN 1845530454
214 PP, HB,
$49.95

Lennie Tristano was one of jazz's most extraordinary innovators, possessing a superb piano technique and an awesome musical imagination. The blind pianist's work was revered by many jazz greats including Charlie Parker. Peter Ind makes a persuasive case for Tristano to be placed at the centre of mid-20th century jazz development.

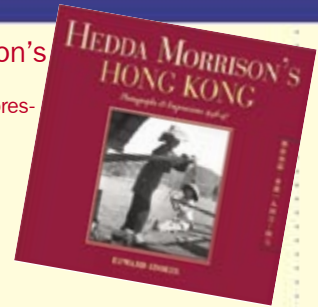

Hedda Morrison's Hong Kong Photographs & Impressions 1946-47

Edward Stokes

HONG KONG UNI PRESS
ISBN 9622097545
282 PP, HB,
$89.95

This is a unique record of a now vanished Hong Kong – the most complete pictorial account of how the colony looked during the decades from the early 1930s to the 1950s. Hedda Morrison's photographs will appeal to all who value documentary images, Asian History, and the ethnography of urban traders, crafts and rural life. However, fewer than thirty of this book's reproductions have ever been seen before.

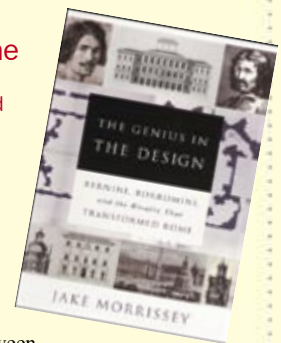

The Genius in the Design Bernini, Borromini and the Rivalry that Transformed Rome

Jake Morrissey

DUCKWORTH
ISBN 071563383X
288 PP, HB,
$65.95

This is the true story of the great rivalry between two extraordinary men, the 17th century architects Gianlorenzo Bernini and Francesco Borromini, and how their antagonism changed the city of Rome and created the Baroque. Part history, part biography, part adventure story The Genius in the Design is narrative non-fiction that reads like a novel.

Telling the Truth

Socialist Register 2006

Patnitch and Leys (Eds)

THE MERLIN PRESS
ISBN 0850365600
304 PP, PB,
$49.95

How does power shape ideas and ideologies today? Who controls the information on which public discussion rests? How is power used to exclude critical thought in politics, the media, universities, state policy-making? Has neo-liberal globalisation introduced a new era of state duplicity, corporate manipulation of truth and intellectual conformity? Are we entering a new age of unreason?

Chasin' the Bird The Life and Legacy of Charlie Parker

Brian Priestley

EQUINOX PUBLISHING
ISBN 1845530365
242 PP, HB,
$56.00

In his short life, Parker, together with Dizzy Gillespie, Bud Powell and Thelonius Monk, was the main architect of the modern jazz revolution of the 1940s known as bebop. This is a completely revised and expanded edition of the short biography first published in 1984, incorporating material that has since come to light and providing an expanded discussion of performances and recordings, with a complete discography and bibliography.
